African-American/Caribbean Education Association, Inc. (AAACEAINC)

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM – Community Service Award 2022

Rosedale and Valley Stream, NY

May 31, 2022

Announcement: Community Service Award 2022

In lieu of AAACEAINC's traditional scholarships, the Community Service Award is being presented to a high school graduating senior that has met the Award's criteria and given outstanding service to the Community.

We respectfully congratulate this high school scholar and extend our well wishes, on continued excellence in the pursuit of higher education.

Community Service Award Recipient 2022

Congratulations

Lana Priester, Jamaica, NY
Professional Performing Arts High School

To attend:

Virginia Union University-Fall 2022

- HBCU -

AAACEAINC encourages our young people to give service.

Service builds character, develops leadership, helps community endeavors to succeed and allows students to learn about various resources and opportunities.

This opportunity shall be offered to high school graduating seniors, again next year.
