

Oratorical Contest

The African-American/Caribbean Education Association Inc.
(AACEAINC)
Presents

2nd Original Oratory Competition

“Honoring Frederick Douglas, the Iconic Master of Oratory”

Saturday, February 1st, 2025 * 1:00 – 4:00 PM

American Legion Post 483 Rosedale / Laurelton

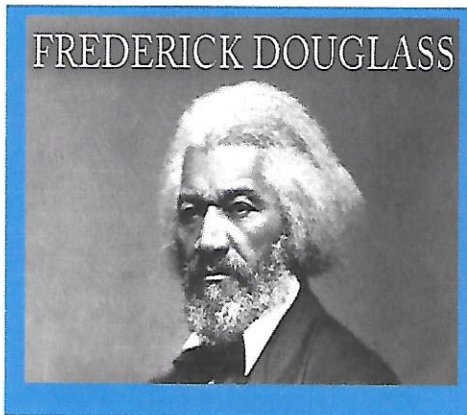

240-08 135th Avenue, Rosedale, New York 11422

Spectator Entry Fee: $20 Adults – $10 Children & Young Adults under 18 yrs.

STAND UP SPEAK OUT

Original Oratory Competition

START WRITING YOUR SPEECHES

Frederick Douglass, one of the greatest orators of all time.

-FEATURING-
Compelling Oratory
Topics

ACADEMIC ENDEAVORS

Registration: Download Registration Form at: aaceainc.com

All necessary information to compete is provided: Rules, topics, written speeches, and deadlines

Pay Entry Fee:

A Guest List is generated with the names of paid entry fee holders, there are no tickets to be given.

The entrance fee can be paid via:

- AACEAINC Representative
- Online at: aaceainc.com
<https://aaceainc.com/contact-ii/> the Contact Page
Follow the directions given at the bottom of the Contact Page – Special Events and Activities
- Mail remittance by January 18th

Make checks payable to African-American/Caribbean Education Association

Mail Remittance to: AACEAINC, Attn: Oratory Competition, P.O. Box 1224, Valley Stream, NY 11582-1224

For further questions email us at aaceainc@yahoo.com or call: Tel: 718-949-6733 listed in Queens Directory, NY

Original Oratory Competition

Open to students

Grades: 5 – 12

Get Full Details and Download Registration Form at:

www.aaceainc.com

Registration Form and Admission –

Free for Oratory Competitors in the Competition